APPLICATION for RE-SUBMITTAL # _____ (1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc.)

NOTICE TO ALL APPLICANTS:

You are required to complete and return a re-submittal application with Planning and Development Services after the Technical Review Committee meeting and comments have been provided to you. Your revisions will not be processed without the completed re-submittal application being submitted with the revisions requested by the Technical Review Committee and the Development Services Division.

The applicant has been made aware of comments either by Planning and Development Services or the Technical Review Committee meeting. I understand that the Board of County Commissioners has the final approval regarding all development projects. I understand that this proposed development will be subject to all applicable land use regulations, and that this development is not considered vested for specific land use regulations until the Planning Director or his/her representative has issued a final development order.

The applicant should not rely on any representation made by staff unless such representation is in writing and signed by the person making such representation and has been approved by the authorized approval entity.
